

Seth Leininger

GEOLOGIST

Profile

Recently graduated with my BS - Geology, I am currently looking to advance my career in the Geology Industry. Also a musician and fine artist, I enjoy keeping myself busy and engaged in every aspect of my life.

Employment History

General Contracting , Self-Employed, Cheyenne, WY

JANUARY 2009 – PRESENT

Experience in all general maintenance and construction including: interior/exterior maintenance, minor plumbing/electrical work, painting, drywall/trimming and framing. With a emphasis on using critical problem-solving to find a solution.

Maintenance Specialist, Albany County Public Library, Laramie, WY

JANUARY 2017 – PRESENT

Maintenance of all building needs; indoor/outdoor. This includes regular monitoring of HVAC systems and all electronic building services. Communication and coordination with contractors has also been a regular facet of the job.

Bartender, Chili's - Laramie, Laramie, WY

OCTOBER 2014 – DECEMBER 2016

This job involved high competency of customer-service, including resolve of customers' problems and requests. Further, involved monitoring event activities and coordination to ensure compliance with all applicable regulation and laws.

Education

BS - Geology & Earth Sciences, University of Wyoming, Laramie, WY

AUGUST 2016 – AUGUST 2019

Focus: Mineralogy, Structural Geology, GIS

Minors: Anthropology, Painting

References

Rachel Crocker from Albany County Public Library

rcrocker@acplwy.org | 3077212580

Barbara John from University of Wyoming - Structural Geology/Tectonics

bjohn@uwyo.edu | 307-223-1951

Wade Brockman from Summit Field Analytical Services

307-631-8467

Details

3074215815

sethlein@gmail.com

Skills

ArcGIS

Adobe Creative Suite

Microsoft Office

Good time management

Customer Relations

High Attention to Detail